Sale to be held at Raveni Stock Farm

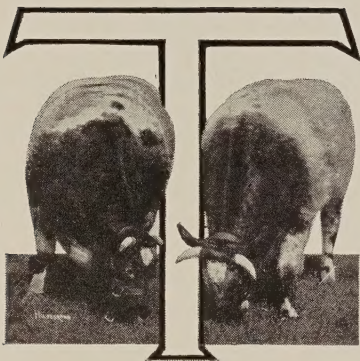

Shelbyville, Indiana

Wednesday, June 5, 1935

Sale starts at 1:00 P. M.

HAL LONGLEY, Sale Manager, 37 Island Ave., AURORA, ILL.

Please Bring This Catalog With You

HIS is our first public auction of Shorthorn cattle and it is the result of a carefully planned program which we mapped out a number of years ago. Being neighbor breeders with a mutual admiration for each other's Shorthorn cattle productions, it was rather natural that our two herds should gradually work toward a similarity of blood lines and a consequent similarity of type. It was also natural that we work toward a marketing program equally beneficial to both. It is our plan to make this sale an annual event, holding it first at one farm and then the other, it being our hope in so doing that we can bring as many lovers of Shorthorn cattle as possible to the places where we are making a modest attempt to produce cattle of the improving kind.

We do not wish to praise our own cattle nor do we aim to make any misleading statements in presenting their merits in this catalog. The cattle will speak for themselves on sale day and those that are listed in the sale are equal in quality, type and pedigree to the ones we are retaining in our herds. We extend a most cordial invitation for you to attend our first annual sale.

T. DORSEY JONES,
EARL E. ROBBINS.

RAVENI PRINCESS 2d AND RAVENI LEADER, both sired by Browndale Pilot and out of dams sired by Browndale Star. Photo taken in 1931 when they were the undefeated pair of calves wherever shown, including the American Royal and International. The cattle offered in this sale are closely related to these two famous prize winners.

EVERY MAN who is contemplating the purchase of pure bred Short-horn seed stock should ask himself three vital questions. Here they are: First, are the cattle I am considering of the right type and quality? Second, do their pedigrees insure the reproduction of this type and quality? And third, will the reputation of the man who bred them be an aid in the marketing of their future offspring? In considering the qualifications of the cattle offered in this sale, your answers in every case will be "YES." A fortunate chain of circumstances makes this sale practical and possible. T. Dorsey Jones and Earl Robbins are neighbor breeders. Both have reached the highest pinnacles of success as breeders of prize winning show cattle and to accomplish this, they have made good use of the best things in each others herds. Consequently, a similarity of blood lines and a similarity of type appears throughout both herds and one need only study the show ring records of the past few years to be thoroughly convinced that these blood lines and this type are the best available in American herds today. Forty head of Robinwood and Raveni bred Short-horns make up this sale offering and all of them are so ideal in form and pedigree that they are sure to work improvement wherever they go. Back of the entire group is the blood of Raveni Masterpiece, Browndale Pilot and Browndale Star, bulls that either have won International championships themselves or that have been responsible for such winnings. Concerning the sale offering in general, it is sufficient to say that many of them have strong show ring records themselves and all of them are directly related to top show ring winners.

If you want an outstanding herd bull backed by championship blood, you will find eleven of them available in this sale. If you want royally bred Scotch females, the kind upon which successful herds are founded, you may make selections from thirty of the best that have been offered through an auction in many years. Earl Robbins—the man who exhibited the first International champion in 1900 and the last one in 1934, is offering you his best. T. Dorsey Jones—the man who bred the last International grand champion bull as well as junior champions and first prize "gets" is offering you his best. I am pleased to be charged with the management of such a sale because I feel confident that future great Shorthorn herds will owe their success to herd bulls and foundation females purchased from this offering.—Hal Longley of The Shorthorn World.

BROWNDALÉ STAR by Browndale Count, grand champion wherever shown in 1929 and a consistent sire of prize winners in show rings of recent years. Owned by T. Dorsey Jones. Several of his sons and daughters are listed in this sale.

He has a grand head, short legs, wide ribs, a deep body, strong quarters, a level top and bottom and he combines with all this, a smooth covering of thick flesh. Mr. Robbins wishes to reserve the right to retain this bull and show him this year, delivering him following the International at which time he will be about ready for service.

Browndale Monarch—Is an outstanding son of the International grand champion Raveni Masterpiece. Through his dam, he will bring to his new owner six generations of Robbins breeding. He is square, compact, has a splendid head, well sprung ribs, and long, strong quarters. There has been much speculation as to which bull was the better, Browndale Monarch or Browndale Combination. Either bull is good enough to head the strongest herd in the land. Mr. Robbins wishes to reserve the right to retain this bull and show him this year, delivering him following the International at which time he will be about ready for service.
